

(1) If an award has not been made, or offer has not been accepted, determine whether the bid or offer should be rejected.

(2) If an award has been made or offer has been accepted, take action to enforce the covenant in accordance with its terms, that is, as the best interests of the Government may appear, annul the contract without liability or recover the amount of the fee involved.

(3) Consider the future eligibility as a contractor of the bidder or contractor in accordance with established procedure.

(4) Determine whether the case should be referred to the Department of Justice in accordance with established procedure with respect to determining matters of fraud or criminal conduct.

§ 101-45.313-9 Preservation of records.

Selling agencies shall preserve, for enforcement or report purposes, at least one executed copy of any representation and completed Standard Form 119, together with a record of any other pertinent data, including data as to action taken.

§ 101-45.314 Federal excise taxes.

Federal manufacturers' and retailers' excise taxes are not applicable to the sale or other disposal by the Government of personal property or the disposal of contractor inventory. Federal manufacturers' excise taxes do not apply to subsequent sales, including uses, by purchasers of Government property and contractor inventory. Federal retailers' excise taxes apply to subsequent sales, but not to subsequent uses by the purchasers unless the subsequent sale is made for resale and a certificate of resale is obtained. The foregoing does not apply to gasoline, and holding agencies shall make appropriate arrangements with the Internal Revenue Service with respect to the disposal thereof. Questions relating to the applicability of Federal excise taxes arising from the disposal of property or contractor inventory should be referred to the Internal Revenue Service.

§ 101-45.315 Equal Opportunity clause in contracts.

The Equal Opportunity clause prescribed by Executive Order 11246 of September 24, 1965 (30 FR 12319, 12935) (as amended by Executive Order 11375 of October 13, 1967 (32 FR 14303)), as set forth in § 101-45.4807, shall be included in all contracts for the sale of personal property when the contract exceeds $10,000, and an appreciable amount of work by the purchaser required by or for the Government is involved. When a sale is planned and the probability exists that the foregoing conditions will be present, the Equal Opportunity clause shall be included in the contract provisions of the invitation as a special condition of sale.

§ 101-45.316 [Reserved]

§ 101-45.317 Noncollusive bids and proposals.

(a) Condition No. 20 of the General Sale Terms and Conditions, Standard Form 114C, contains the certification of independent price determination. This condition is applicable to all invitations for bids and requests for proposals or quotations providing for the sale of personal property, except fixed price sale under section 203(e)(5) of the Act.

(b) The authority to make determinations described in paragraph (d) of Condition No. 20 of the General Sale Terms and Conditions, Standard Form 114C, shall not be delegated to an official below the level of the head of a selling activity of the agency.

(c) Where a certification is suspected of being false or there is an indication of collusion, the matter shall be referred to the Department of Justice as provided in § 101-45.107-1.
